COBB COUNTY, GEORGIA is highly-regarded for its pro-business environment, a product of careful planning, cooperation with other local governments, and progressive leadership which, over the years, has generated a strong and diverse economy that is not dependent on any one industry or sector.

Major national and international companies are represented in the County. In addition, several employers including Wellstar Health System (Healthcare), Home Depot (Retail), Novelis (Manufacturing), and Alorica-formerly Ryla Teleservices (customer service support) have expanded their presence in the County, creating approximately 3,239 new jobs in 2011. Alorica recently announced plans to add 1,000 new jobs by the end of 2012. Some jobs are to fill seasonal vacancies and others will be permanent.

Currently, there are over 28,000 businesses in unincorporated Cobb. There are 416 international companies that have a presence in Cobb. Five Fortune 500 companies have their headquarters in Cobb County; they are The Home Depot, Coca-Cola Enterprises, Genuine Parts (NAPA), NCR, and First Data. Each of these companies represents a different type of commercial enterprise that has found the County's business environment to be conducive to future growth.

Cobb County's superior service delivery and infrastructure improvements are effectively managed to maintain the lowest comparative property tax burden in the Metro Atlanta area.

ADVANTAGES OF COBB COUNTY

- County offers one-stop permitting and was voted “best government in metro area” by business leaders.
- Three 4-year colleges and one technical school provide an educated work force.
- Low insurance ISO rating (3).
- Cobb’s award-winning school system rated in top 10 percent by national standardized test scores.
- 43 percent of county residents have college degrees (bachelor’s or higher). US Census
- Suburban transit system provides inter and intra-county movement.
- Multi-million dollar bond referendum met with voter approval for parks and recreation program.
- Two Community Improvement Districts have been established in the Cumberland-Galleria and Town Center areas to address transportation issues.

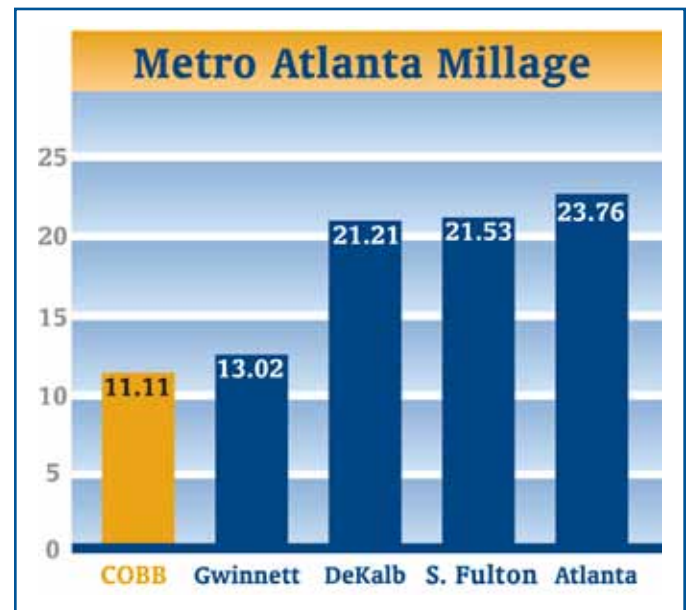

ABOVE: Cobb County has more than eight universities and colleges and provides a highly educated workforce.

- Over $850 million in SPLOST funded transportation improvement projects.
- Lowest property tax rate in Metro Atlanta based on FY12 numbers.
